Registration & Welcome Reception

Sunday, April 24, 2005

A "Day at the Races" at the Keeneland Race Course. Enjoy an afternoon at this beautiful historic race track along with the rich traditions that embody the Thoroughbred industry. Participants will also enjoy an incredible buffet lunch in the elegant Kentucky Room. Gentlemen are required to wear a coat & tie. (A limited number of tickets are available-see registration for details.)

Monday, April 25, 2005-Guest Tour

An afternoon is planned at the Kentucky Horse Park (which is actually a working horse farm!) where you can visit the International Museum of the Horse, American Saddlebred Museum, Hall of Champions, Gift Shop, take horse rides & experience much more! In addition, preparations will be underway for the International Rolex

Three-Day Event, which will be held at the end of the week! Lots of people and lots of equine!

The SCTR Annual Dinner will be held Monday evening at the "Red Mile Harness Race Track." Enjoy an incredible dining experience at one of the oldest harness racing tracks in the country.

Tuesday, April 26, 2005

The University Club of Kentucky, a private course, is slated to host the annual Golf Scramble. This newly renovated 36-hole course is a challenge for all levels of golfers. (In the event of inclement weather, the participants will have the option of going to Keeneland Race Course for the afternoon.)

Tuesday, April 26, 2005 continued . . .

For those of you not golfing, additional activities include a Motorcoach Tour of Horse Country, a unique countryside lunch experience, along with a walking tour of an actual working distillery. During this trip, you will visit some of the country's most famous farms, see some of the world's most beautiful horses and possibly taste some 100 year old bourbon made right here in Kentucky!
